

Let's Ask Matthew-Who Jesus Is?

Audience:_____converts to Christianity

The overall message of the book: To demonstrate that Jesus is the long awaited King of Israel by showing the ties between the Old Testament and this _____.

Why start with a _____?

- It shows that Jesus was a historical person.
- It shows that Jesus has the legal right to be the Messiah.

Matthew is using _____ to say that Jesus is the long awaited King of the Jews.

Why this genealogy?

- It includes sinful non_____ women!

Matthew is using Jesus' _____ to say that Jesus can _____ to anyone.

Why phrase it this way?

- To make it clear that Jesus had no earthly father but an _____.
- To show that Jesus is the Savior

Matthew is saying that Jesus is the promised _____ crusher.

Why the _____ lesson?

- It implies that the coming of _____ will change your life.

Matthew is shouting-just imagine How Jesus can change _____!

Let's Ask Matthew-Who Jesus Is?

Audience:_____converts to Christianity

The overall message of the book: To demonstrate that Jesus is the long awaited King of Israel by showing the ties between the Old Testament and this _____.

Why start with a _____?

- It shows that Jesus was a historical person.
- It shows that Jesus has the legal right to be the Messiah.

Matthew is using _____ to say that Jesus is the long awaited King of the Jews.

Why this genealogy?

- It includes sinful non_____ women!

Matthew is using Jesus' _____ to say that Jesus can _____ to anyone.

Why phrase it this way?

- To make it clear that Jesus had no earthly father but an _____.
- To show that Jesus is the Savior

Matthew is saying that Jesus is the promised _____ crusher.

Why the _____ lesson?

- It implies that the coming of _____ will change your life.

Matthew is shouting-just imagine How Jesus can change _____!