Do you ever feel like this when you are helping your kids with their homework? Or is it more like this

- Why would they change math

Now I after that happened with that student I went to Courtney and he shared with me the why, not all methods work with every student and they want to give them the tools that can help them.

- I wish I was kid today in school, they have wiggle seats, and they give the kids something to fiddle with.

But when they start changing things that worked for me that is when I start going Mr. Incredible on people

- We all do, change is hard. All change not just in Math.
- We do what we know. We are comfortable with what we know.

How do you feel when someone tries to change you? Even if it is for the better?

How did Jesus the Son of God influence the world around Him?

John 1:1-5 1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2 He was with God in the beginning. 3 All things were created through him, and apart from him not one thing was created that has been created. 4 In him was life, and that life was the light of men. 5 That light shines in the darkness, and yet the darkness did not overcome it

How do you feel when the light is shined on your face?

This is how one of Jesus' disciples described it.

John 1:14 The Word became flesh and dwelt among us. We observed his glory, the glory as the one and only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth.

- The purpose of a Rabbi

Luke 6:40 A disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone who is fully trained will be like his teacher.

Mark 3:13-15 Jesus went up the mountain and summoned those he wanted, and they came to him. 14 He appointed twelve, whom he also named apostles, to be with him, to send them out to preach, 15 and to have authority to drive out demons.
